Participated in other activities designed by the station employment unit reasonably calculated to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities in broadcasting to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of such opportunities.

Establishment of an Internship Program

Positive Alternative Radio, Inc. ("PAR") continues growth with the internship program designed to assist members of the community, mainly students from local colleges and universities, to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Those students who are involved in the internship program gain knowledge in the areas of news, weather, production/operations, and overall business skills, in order to get real experiences in broadcasting.

Participation in job banks, Internet Programs and other programs designed to promote outreach generally

WCQR posts job opportunities on its website, www.wcqr.org, in addition, we advertise the website on-air. WCQR's website is intended also to describe the radio broadcast business, our radio ministry efforts and promote general outreach to the community. WCQR also posts job opportunities with the Virginia and Tennessee Employment Commission, which reaches out to many other sources within the community.

Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher-level positions

WCQR has often promoted from within and has trained staff to qualify for higher-level positions being offered. Those promoted to position of sales manager from administrative assistant, station engineer from on-air personality, accounting assistant from receptionist.

Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination

WCQR continually communicates to management level personnel the importance of hiring decisions and equal employment opportunity guidelines for the company and its radio stations. WCQR posts EEO policy on its website and at all of its radio stations.
